Experience First-Hand Why Current Homeowners Embraced The Coves Community

The Coves is akin to having your own private preserve, where nature is conserved, honored and meant to be actively experienced. Only a limited number of homesites are planned in this 90-acre community. Nestled along the wooded 4+ miles of walking trails are distinctive homes designed and built by quality craftsmen. All homes at The Coves have grand decks with stunning views of the mountains, lake, forests, and wildlife.
